SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION (from the Udall Foundation website):
Each year, the Udall Foundation awards 55 scholarships of up to $7000 each and 50 honorable mentions to sophomore and junior level college students committed to careers related to the environment, tribal public policy, or Native American health care.

Eligibility:
To be eligible, students must meet all of the following criteria:
1. Be committed to a career related to the environment, OR committed to a career in tribal public policy OR Native American health care. (Only Native Americans and Alaska Natives are eligible to apply in tribal public policy or Native American health care. Native American students studying tribal public policy or native health do not need to demonstrate commitment to the environment. Likewise, students pursuing environmentally related careers do not need to be Native American, nor do they need to demonstrate commitment to tribal public policy or Native health.)
2. Be a sophomore or junior

Benefits:
Scholarships are offered in any of three categories:
- To students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment including policy, engineering, science, education, urban planning and renewal, business, health, justice, economics, and other related fields; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to tribal public policy, including fields related to tribal sovereignty, tribal governance, tribal law, Native American education, Native American justice, natural resource management, cultural preservation and revitalization, Native American economic development, and other areas affecting Native American communities; or
- To Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to Native health care, including health care administration, social work, medicine, dentistry, counseling, and research into health conditions affecting Native American communities, and other related fields.

Selection Criteria:
Scholars are selected on the basis of:
1. Demonstrated commitment to environmental or natural resource issues; OR Demonstrated commitment to tribal public policy; OR Demonstrated commitment to Native American health care. Commitment is demonstrated through substantial contributions to and participation in one or more of the following: campus activities, research, tribal involvement, community or public service. Nominees in the categories of tribal public policy OR Native American health care must be Native American or Alaska Native.
2. Course of study and proposed career likely to lead to position where nominee can make significant contributions to the shaping of either environmental, or tribal public policy, or Native American health care issues, whether through scientific advances, public or political service, or community action.
3. Leadership, character, desire to make a difference, general well-roundedness.

Harvard College
Morris K. Udall Scholarship
2022-2023 Application for Institutional Nomination

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND ORGANIZE THE FOLLOWING MATERIALS FOR YOUR APPLICATION:

■ SAMPLE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM (ATTACHED)
Follow the instructions and complete the Biographical Questionnaire required of all scholarship nominees. Note that the questionnaire consists of five sections (A through D). Entering your name at the top of the questionnaire constitutes your signature and your declaration that this application is your own work and the information you provide is true and accurate. Do not worry about detaching the application form from these instructions before submitting.

■ ESSAY
In 800 words or less, discuss a significant public speech, legislative act, book, or public policy statement by Congressman Morris K. Udall or Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall and its impact on your field of study, interests, and career goals. (Please see next page for additional information and resources.)

■ CURRENT UNOFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT
Download your unofficial transcript from my.harvard.edu.

■ THREE LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION
You will find information about these letters within the Foundation’s online application site. One letter should be from a current or recent instructor in your field of study, and one should be from a current or recent instructor who can comment on your potential; the third should also attest to your capabilities but does not need to be from an instructor. (The request forms available to you in the online site are for your convenience only—they do not need to be submitted with the actual letters.) Recommendations should be addressed to the “Udall Scholarship Selection Committee” and submitted online by your recommenders, following instructions they will receive once you designate them. (See below).

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION AS FOLLOWS:

1. LOG IN TO CARAT USING YOUR HARVARD KEY and confirm that your profile information is correct.

2. BROWSE FOR THE APPROPRIATE OPPORTUNITY AND CLICK “APPLY”
Fill out all required fields.

3. REQUEST RECOMMENDATIONS (via “References” tab)
You are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to solicit recommendations at least three weeks ahead of the application deadline. Once you have provided name (Last, First) and contact information for your recommenders, YOU MUST CLICK “Send Reference Request” under each recommender’s entry in order for CARAT to send the notification to your recommender’s email. “Save and Next” will NOT submit your recommendation requests.

4. UPLOAD YOUR DOCUMENTS
All documents must be submitted concurrently, in PDF format. No supplementary materials will be accepted.

5. SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION (via “Submission” tab)
Enter your HUID and click “Submit”. The date and time of your submission will be noted, and late applications will not be accepted.

If you or your recommenders have questions about this application or the online submission process, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Research and Fellowships at (617) 495-5095 or fellowships@fas.harvard.edu.
